

INTERNET IN THE HOME

A home Internet connection allows Canadians access to all sorts of opportunities. They can find out about the world, engage with others, take care of business, and have fun from the comfort of their home.

92%

of Anglophone Canadians have home Internet service.

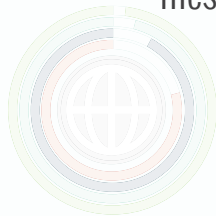

96%

Nearly all Anglophones with a post-secondary education (University or College) have home Internet.

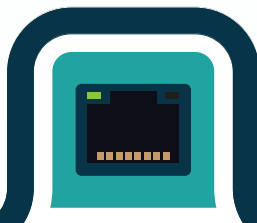

WHAT'S INSIDE?

Looking for this data and more? Subscribe to the Media Technology Monitor to find out. Click here to send us a message or call us at 1-855-898-4999.

18-34 35-49 50-64 65+

For more information on how Canadians use the Internet, check out the Data Analysis Tool (DAT)